The Week Ahead

Morning Prayer 7:30 a.m.; Daily Mass 8:00 a.m.

I AM COMPASSIONATE.
EX 22:27

30th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Love God as Yourself

Dear Friends in Christ,

The painting of the school and church windows has been completed. They look good and hopefully this will increase the life of those windows. Pat Fogarty and his son fixed a broken sewer line in front of the church. They did it very inexpensively. I was fearful it would cost much more. Also Dan Nuñez has volunteered his time to assist with maintenance issues around campus while Paul Dunbar is caring for his mother. Thanks to all of you.

I have gotten some positive feedback about my presentations about the New Missal and its translation. Deacon Mikaele and I will be speaking about the different parts of the Mass during the coming weeks. It is my hope that all of us can have a deeper appreciation of Mass and so enter more fully into it.

Last year Bill Seeber organized a simplified Turkey Dinner and it was very successful. His goal was to get parishioners to work together and so get to know one another. He is organizing a similar dinner this year to happen on November 6. Again, the goal is to work together as a parish and to enjoy a nice dinner together. I hope many of you can get involved.

Blessings to all,

Fr. William

We Pray...

Loving Father, look upon these gentle friends with eyes of mercy. May your healing hand rest upon them, may your life-giving powers flow into their bodies and into the depths of their souls, restoring them to wholeness and strength. Your blessing upon: Mary Vander Vorste, Sandy Cakebread, Theresa Maurer, Doug Dieker, Norb Dominick, Stephanie Billsborough, & Tanya Little.

Prayer requests will be placed on this list for one month, at which time they will be removed. If you continue to want your name on the prayer list, please call the office to be on for an additional month. People may be added to the Prayer Chain by contacting the Parish Office or Joani Steffen.

For the elderly and homebound of our parish family, may we remember them and pray that their infirmities bring them closer to our Lord.

We pray for all of our troops who have been injured, as well as their families who love and miss them. We offer special prayers for their safe return as we begin withdrawing our forces from Iraq.
